

Health & Safety Policy Statement - C60Media Ltd

In accordance with its duty under Section 2(3) of the Health and Safety at Work etc. Act, 1974, and in fulfilling its obligations to both employees and the public who may be affected by its activities, the director responsible for the health and safety of C60Media Ltd produced the following statement of policy in respect of health and safety.

It is our aim to achieve a working environment which is free of work related accidents and ill-health and to this end we will pursue continuing improvements from year to year.

We undertake to discharge our statutory duties by:

- Identifying hazards in the workplace, assessing the risks related to them and implementing appropriate preventative and protective measures
- Providing and maintaining safe work equipment
- Establishing and enforcing safe methods of work
- Recruiting, contracting and appointing personnel who have skills, abilities and competence commensurate with their role and level of responsibility
- Ensuring that tasks given to employees are within their skills, knowledge and ability to perform
- Ensuring that technical competence is maintained through the provision of refresher training as appropriate
- Promoting awareness of health and safety and of good practice through the effective communicate or relevant information
- Furnishing sufficient funds needed to meet these objectives
- All employees on their part are encouraged to contribute actively towards achieving a work environment, which is free of accidents and ill health
- Our health and safety policy will be reviewed annually to monitor its effectiveness and to ensure that it reflects changing needs and circumstances

The company has appointed a director to represent health and safety, who will ensure the provision of an effective organisation and arrangements for the implementation of this policy.

Every employee has an obligation to take reasonable care for their safety and for the safety of other people who may be affected by their acts or omissions. They are also obliged to co-operate with their employer in respect of matters concerning health and safety. The involvement and co-operation of employees at all levels is essential for the effective implementation of this policy.

The company will, each year, establish objectives and monitor performance against those previously established objectives. We will also publish results, with the intent of achieving year-on-year improvement.

This policy will be periodically reviewed by the directors. Action will be taken to ensure its continuing relevance, effectiveness and adequacy.

C60Media is also committed to achieving targets and standards set by government and industry within the overall strategy of health and safety performance in media and other related industries.

Signed:

Peter Shevlin, Director, C60Media Ltd
